Since its foundation in 2011 (fourteen years ago) “Ozone Therapy Global Journal” (previously “Spanish Journal of Ozone Therapy”), has been published uninterruptedly in English and Spanish, by AEPROMO (Spanish Association of Medical Professionals in Ozone Therapy). <https://ozonetherapyglobaljournal.es/en/>

Anyone had free access to all issues and published articles, without any restrictions. Furthermore, papers submitted to the journal by authors, if they met the strict international editorial criteria required, were published at no cost to the author.

The members of the Editorial Committee and Reviewers of the journal work for free, that is, they work completely ad-honorem. AEPROMO does cover the costs of indexing, layout, computer equipment, web site, hosting and advertising.

The editors have found it necessary to implement a new economic policy in order to continue publishing the journal. The income obtained will be used to cover, even if only partially, the annual costs of publication. The detailed reasons for the new economic policy of the journal can be read in the editorial of volume 14 (2024): “Challenges for the journal to continue being publishing”.

Free access for AEPROMO members

One of the important benefits that AEPROMO members will have is that they will continue to have completely free access to all published issues of the journal and to each of its articles, both in Spanish and English, on the condition that they are up to date with their dues payments.

We cordially invite those who are not members of AEPROMO to join our association so that they can enjoy the benefit of free access to the journal. In addition, they will be able to enjoy other benefits of being members, such as registering for courses, seminars, conferences and other events organized by the association with significant economic reductions. <https://aepromo.org/en/>

The Director&Editor of the journal, all members of the Editorial Committee and Reviewers will continue to work on the journal free of charge and committed to ensuring that each published issue meets the international standards for publishing scientific journals, and that it contains articles that contribute to the dissemination and application of ozone therapy in a scientific manner.

We trust that readers will support this new stage of the journal, in search of its self-financing, and that reading and/or consulting its articles will provide with the information and knowledge that will be useful for the daily professional practice.
